

The Gospel for Rap

It's not about us and the friends we make. God made us for Jesus' sake.

It's not about our claim to fame. It's about living for God's great Name.

Yes, God is good and God is great. We're part of the world that He did make.

But we're not pure, and that's for sure. We're born with sin and there's no cure.

Except for what, God has done, in His good time He sent His Son.

He lived a perfect life, right in the middle of all this strife.

He felt our every pain, but never had a sinful stain.

Nailed to the cross by sinful men, Jesus Christ took all our sin.

Pierced and died for our transgressions, to take us as His own possession.

On the third day, He rose again to bring salvation, to all men.

If this good news, we receive and on His Name we believe,

God gives, the right to become His child, all of power, yet meek and mild.

So let's humble ourselves before the King, so at His coming we can sing

All praise, honor, power, and glory! Exalt the Lord and tell His story.
