

God the One Who Knows My Heart

Rhyming Reviews for David

Lesson One

1. You can remember that Psalms means “songs” if you remember that David’s heart longs to sing the songs.
2. Samuel’s sons were more interested in getting their own way instead of listening to what God had to say.
3. The people wanted a king, but God warned them about the trouble that would bring.
4. God had Samuel anoint the first king of Israel. His name was Saul. He was handsome and tall.
5. God’s instruction for Saul to wait 7 days for Samuel, he did not follow. Then he found the punishment for his sin hard to swallow.
6. A young man can keep his way pure for sure by guarding it according to God’s Word.

Lesson Two

1. To anoint one of Jesse’s sons as the new king, to Bethlehem Samuel must go. Which son God had chosen, He would know.
2. Let’s listen carefully and do our part. For man looks on the outside, but God looks on the heart.
3. David was a shepherd boy who cared for the sheep. His father’s flock he would faithfully keep.
4. God knows everything because He is omniscient. Because He knows everything, that is sufficient.
5. When things are tough, don’t shout or pout, but care about the things God cares about.
6. With your whole heart, God, you must seek. Then on the path of His commandments, you will keep.

Lesson Three

1. It wasn’t a little problem by any means. The Israelites were threatened every day by the Philistines.
2. The threats and taunts of the giant, they just couldn’t take it. Only a young shepherd with strong faith in the mighty God could make it.
3. Our champion is Jesus. He won over sin and death and in His holiness, He now sees us.
4. God delivered David from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear in Israel’s land. He knew that God would deliver him from the Philistine’s hand.
5. That there is the true God in Israel, David wanted all to know. By defeating the giant, God’s power he would show.
6. Remember that like David, for God’s glory you can be bold. His power working in your life can always be told.

Lesson Four

1. David and Jonathan made a promise to each other, to care for their families just like a brother.
2. David was wholehearted about following God, meaning zealous. However, Saul was unhappy about David and very jealous.
3. As Saul pursued, David and his men hid in a cave. One night, Saul came into the cave to sleep, but honor for God and respect for the king, David would keep.
4. When it’s hard to trust God’s plan, here’s three things you can do. Remember who God is and thank God for being with you. Ask God to help you trust Him and He will keep you from sin.
5. David was chased and threatened by Saul for 10 years. With God’s Word in his heart he trusted in God’s plan and God delivered him from all his fears.
6. Storing up God’s Word your heart is your part. It is the best way for you and what every child should do.

Lesson Five

1. There is an important character quality about God to always keep in mind. That is: God is kind.
2. It is important to hide God's Word in our hearts that we might not sin. In this way, we can surely win.
3. Mephibosheth's nurse was running. Everything was a blur. Prince Jonathan's child was in danger, everyone told her.
4. David remembered his promise to Jonathan when he became king. Jonathan's son, Mephibosheth to him they would bring.
5. God's kindness to us is a real plus. He forgives, cleans us, and brings us to His side where we can abide.
6. King David gave Mephibosheth a place at his table. Even though his feet were unsteady, with David's care, his life was stable.